

CENTENARY COMPOSITION COMPETITION

Northampton and District Organists' Association (NDOA) welcomes entries to its composition competition for a Fanfare for Organ to celebrate the Association's centenary in 2021.

Do you compose? Or perhaps you would like to compose for the first time? We are inviting entries from both students and adults to our Centenary Composition Competition. Entrants should compose a short Fanfare for Organ which we hope to publish in our forthcoming Centenary Organ Book.

1. The competition will have two categories: one for students under the age of 22, and one for adults over 22
2. The Fanfare should be no more than two pages of A4 manuscript in length
3. The Fanfare should be a novel composition and should not have been published previously or submitted for any other competition. The Association's decision on the winning entry is final.
4. Winners can expect the following benefits:
 - (i) A prize of £100 for the winning entry in each category.
 - (j) The publication of the winning entries in the forthcoming NDOA Centenary Organ Book, to be published later in 2021. Publication is at the discretion of the publishers and will require the publisher's copyright arrangements to be met.
 - (ii) Students under 22 will receive Free Membership of NDOA until the age of 22, and encouragement to support our meetings in person or online.
 - (iii) The opportunity for the entries to be performed as part of NDOA's calendar of events.
 - (iv) An invitation to write a column in NDOA's Newsletter outlining their experiences.
5. Entrants must be members of NDOA. 2021 Membership is available to anyone who plays or is interested in the organ at only £10 for individuals, and currently is currently free for student members - details at www.northamptonorganists.org.uk/join
6. Entries should be submitted by email to [insert email] by [insert date]
